

Baltic migration and segregation research seminar

May 20-21, 2025 in Tartu

20.05 Seminar venue: Vanemuise 46, room 201

11:00-12:00	Lunch in University of Tartu Library (W. Struve 1)
12:00-12:10	Short introduction
12:10-13:00	Jānis Zālīte „Regional inequalities in digital transition: comparative study of tech workers’ residential geographies in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania“
13:00-13:30	Rūta Ubarevičienė „Residential mobility and homeownership transition: a case study of Lithuania,,
13:30-14:00	Zaiga Krisjane, Maris Berzins, Elina Apsite-Berina, Janis Krumins „Navigating Population Decline in Non-Metropolitan Areas of Latvia“
14:00-14:15	Coffee Break
14:15-15:00	Kadri Leetmaa about the project „Rethinking smartification from the margins: Co-creating Smart Rurality with and for an Aging Population,,
15:00-15:30	Katerzyna Kajdanek (Institute of Sociology, University of Wrocław) online presentation „Selective back-to-the-city movement and potential for socio-spatial transformation of inner-cities in Poland,,
15:30-16:00	Raul Garcia Estevez „Fast Internet and Regional Inequalities: Spatial Correlation of Companies, Workers, and Income Inequalities in a Liberal Market Economy“
16:00-18:00	Walk in Karlova, guided by Taavi Pae
18:00-20:00	Dinner in Karlova (in the courtyard at Sõbra 4)

21.05	Seminar venue: Aparaaditehas (Apparatus factory), Kolm Tilli seminar room
	9:00-9:30	Coffee break
	9:30-10:00	Sindija Balode „Residential age segregation: evidence from Riga inner-city core“
	10:00-10.30	Elina Maarja Suitso „Newcomers and stayers in Tallinn Metropolitan area,,
	10:30-11:00	Maris Fogelis „Capital markets in the Baltic States: regional distribution patterns“
	11:00-11:30	Kirils Gončarovs „Energy efficiency for whom? An analysis of housing and population characteristics of energy-efficient housing in Tallinn, Riga, and Vilnius,,
	11:30-12:30	Concluding discussion on the comparative Baltic studies on the renovation wave + other topics
		Wrap-up
	12:30	Lunch